

Ria Yoshida

Ria Yoshida is an Associate at Fisher Yoshida International (fyicommunicate.com) specializing in organizational development, group relations, communications and instructional design. She holds a Master's degree in Social Organizational Psychology from Columbia University. This Fall 2014, Ria will be working towards a Comprehensive Evidence Based Coaching Certificate from Fielding Graduate University.

Ria's deeply-rooted interests in peace building and international relations come from her bilingual and bicultural upbringing, having grown up in both Japan and the U.S. Further, Ria's creative approach to business is influenced by her professional background in marketing and the arts.